

Communication Studies-York International Exchange Award

The Department of Communication Studies York International Exchange Award ($500 annually) is given to a Communication Studies major who has completed a York University International Exchange, is currently completing their Honours degree, who has a high overall GPA, and who can demonstrate financial need.

To be considered, students need to submit a short description of their exchange (which could be in the form of a letter or a video) outlining the value of their experience; they also need to agree to publicize their exchange on the department's web site to further other students' exchanges.

Applications must be submitted to the Undergraduate Program Director, Susan Driver:
