

The Jerry Durlak Prize

The prize is given to a student in the second-year "Information and Technology" course for the Communication Studies Program who has achieved top academic standing as recommended by the Course Director and is continuing into the third-year (minimum 54 earned credits) of the program.

The Jerry Durlak Prize honours Professor Jerry Durlak, a long-time member of the Communication Studies Program who retired in 2005 and passed away in 2010.

No application is required. Recipients are selected based on academic merit.

Value of the award: $100
